

Annexure E

Regulatory stakeholder matrix

This matrix provides you with an overview of the regulatory interest of key agencies and organisations in alternative water concepts. It is intended to assist you to identify who you may want to consult in developing your concept.

Alternative Water Supply Source	Dept. of Water	Dept. of Health	Dept. of Environmental and Conservation	Economic Regulation Authority	Local Govt.	Water Corporation	Plumbers Licensing Board	Western Australian Planning Commission
Rainwater (Roof Runoff)	✓ If shared/widespread impact on ground water	✓ If shared/as part at operating license		✓ If shared/and operating license require	✓ Approval to install tank			Future requirements yet to be developed
Groundwater	✓ For allocation	✓ If shared as part of operating license		✓ If shared and operating license required	✓ Lot level
Treated Stormwater (Drainage)	✓ For natural water courses only	✓ If shared as part of operating license		✓ If shared and operating license required	✓ Access to infrastructure	✓ Access to infrastructure
Treated Greywater		✓ If shared as part of operating license, additional approvals required if local treatment infrastructure	✓ To assess impact of nutrients on local ecosystems	✓ If shared and operating license required	✓* Lot level	✓ ←
Treated Wastewater		✓ If shared as part of operating license, additional approvals required if local wastewater treatment infrastructure	✓ To assess impact of nutrients on local ecosystems	✓ If shared and operating license required	✓ Lot level	✓ ← Access to infrastructure for sewer mining

NOTES:

- Matrix does not include works permits.
- 'Shared' means a centrally managed supply.
- 'Lot' on individual properties.

LEGEND:

- * Must be Department of Health approved systems.
- ← Water Corporation will be asked to make a comment on impact of standard sewer network.

www.watercorporation.com.au

