Product description

The Everbright range of industrial waste pre-treatment products are intended for use in commercial kitchens involved in all kinds of food preparation to screen out and retain solid waste from the waste water. The products can be applied as attachments to sinks.

The SA-001 has a stainless steel butterfly valve at the bottom of the assembly that is operated by an extended T-handle. The SA-002 model is particularly suitable for kitchens where under sink space is limited.

The acceptance certificate applies to the pre-treatment devices tabulated below:
